

THE WAVE - some quotes for discussion

It's something you would only know if you experienced it.

It's the feeling you get when you're part of something more important than you.

What suits everybody else isn't necessarily what's right.

We're being brainwashed.

There are no prizes for being the best Wave member - instead make the Wave best!

Eric: That's what they decided.

Laurie: Who's they?

Eric: The Wave.

Laurie: I thought we were The Wave?

You've got to stop. It's become an obsession with you all. You're not thinking for yourselves anymore!

You traded your freedom for a false equality!

You accepted the group's will over your own beliefs!

Hurting others because the group said so was just about fine with you.

Fascism isn't something that other people once did; it is a threat right here, right now, whenever and wherever people fail to learn from the past, wherever and whenever people blindly follow a leader, whenever and wherever people forget to protect and value the weakest, the different and the just plain infuriating!
